

ONE CENT--THE DAY BOOK--ONE CENT

LOEB MAY BE HUGHES BAIT TO PROGRESSIVE PARTY

Washington, June 17.—Charles E. Hughes passed the week end here as nearly as possible plain citizen Hughes.

He didn't succeed entirely, for congressmen and senators besieged him. They wanted to tell him how glad they were over his nomination, to whisper how they'd always been early and high on the Hughes bandwagon and to promise active work "back home."

William Loeb, Jr., is among those mentioned today to manage Hughes' campaign. Loeb, close to Roosevelt, is one of the leading "tunnellers" in arranging for harmony between the two parties. In some quarters, it was suggested, Loeb's appointment would make for lining up the Progressive vote and effect a similar influence on the Democratic side to be exercised by Manager Vance McCormick.

RAILROAD MEN PREPARE FOR STRIKE VOTE

New York, June 17.—The four organizations of railway trainmen which have been refused their demands for an eight-hour day and time and one-half for overtime are to take a strike vote, the results of which will be in the hands of the leaders August 1, when the demands will be renewed.

Grand Chief Garretson of the railroad men said today the ballots will be printed before night.

San Francisco.—Unknown friend furnished money to bury Edna Loftus, former music hall star, who died in poverty.

Joliet, Ill.—For first time in history of state penitentiary, convicts were entertained at circus within prison.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

"Shall We Be Christians or Militarists?" sermon by Rev. F. A. Moore, Universalist Church of the Redeemer, Robey and Warren av.

"Is Woman Suffrage a Benefit?" lecture by B. V. Hubbard, Lake View hall, 3143 N. Clark Sun., 3 p. m.

Frances Shaw talks, 210 Masonic Temple, Sun., 11 a. m., "Spiritual Philosophy in Everyday Affairs," by invitation of the International New Thought Fellowship.

Dr. Alex P. Melvor Tyndall lectures 913 Masonic Temple, Sun., 7:30 p. m., "Truth About Socialism."

Northwest Side Public Speaking club meets Sun., 2:30 p. m., Women's clubrooms, West Park No. 1. Last meeting of summer.

H. Percy Ward lectures Sun., 11 a. m., Corinthian hall, Masonic Temple: "Should Religion Be Ridiculed?"

"Power of the Press," by Max Sherover, 92d and Houston av., tonight. Sherover will speak here every Saturday night.

Workers' Co-operative ass'n meets tonight, 920 S. Ashland blvd.

Pittsburgh.—Fred Herrick, Socialist published and orator, found guilty of inciting to riot in connection with Westinghouse strike disorders of May 1 and 2. Rudolph Bloom and Anna Goldberg found guilty on the same charges.

NEW YORK STOCKS. — Losses general among leaders.

WEATHER FORECAST

Generally fair tonight and Sunday; not much change in temperature; moderate westerly winds becoming light and variable tonight. Temperature Friday—High, 68; low, 55.